

DAUPHIN DOG TRAINING CLUB

Scent Work Seminar with Joyce Smuda

Please join us for a scent work seminar designed to improve your dog and your handling skills through a variety of exercises and instruction with Joyce Smuda. Joyce is a AKC Scent Work Judge with years of experience in the sport of scent work, along with other accolades including AKC Fetch Judge, CGC Evaluator, AKC FitDog Instructor, and Secretary to Valley Forge Kennel Club.

Weather permitting, there will be interior, exterior, and vehicle searches. The day will be divided into two sessions: a morning session for novice dogs and afternoon for experienced dogs. Novice dogs must be on all three odors (birch, anise, clove) so that they could identify all three separately. Experienced dogs will be able to find multiple hides in one environment, work through more challenging and less accessible hides, overcome food and toy distractions and alert only to odor, and can manage a longer, larger search. The morning session will be 8 AM – 12 PM and the afternoon session with be 1 – 5 PM.
